https://www.morrisville.gov.za/cityplanning/buildingpermits

Requesting a Building Permit

A city-issued building permit may be required before initiating construction work within Morrisville city limits. No city permit is required for work on a building's interior systems, such as plumbing, electrical, or heating and cooling. A permit will be needed for adding to or expanding the size of a building, for changing the exterior appearance of a building, or for any brand-new construction project. Below are the steps for obtaining a permit and for ensuring full compliance with city policies.

1. Check that the building is appropriately registered. See the Registration and Land Use page for more information.

2. Submit an application for a building permit. Please contact Ronald Abioye at the City Planning Office if you need assistance completing this application.

3. You will receive a letter, and if your application is approved, your official building permit will be enclosed. Work may commence once the permit is received and then posted in an easily visible location at the main entrance of the construction site.

159. What type of project would require a permit?

(A) Improving a building's plumbing system
(B) Installing an air-conditioning system
(C) Upgrading the wiring in a residence
(D) Enlarging an office building

160. According to the Web page, why should someone contact Mr. Abioye?

(A) To make changes to a plan
(B) To schedule building maintenance
(C) To receive help when filling out a form
(D) To check on the status of an application

161. What is indicated on the Web page as a step in the preconstruction process?

Questions 168-171 refer to the following blog post.

Regina's Art World Blog

As regular readers of my blog know, over the past few weeks, I have concentrated on the revitalization of the Brentler Heights waterfront district by developer and former architect David Greeley. — [1] —. By far, the most impressive result of this program is the renovation of a former industrial building on Paxton Street. The building's first floor now houses a popular coffee shop and bookstore, and its beautifully landscaped gardens include creative metal sculptures. — [2] —. I am pleased to report that the second floor will be occupied by the Brentler Heights Gallery.

The gallery will be run by Francine Skandar, a Brentler Heights artist I met years ago at a jewelry-making workshop. I always admired her work, and I obtained many of her creations to sell at my shop. I was delighted to learn that she will be managing this high-profile gallery. On a media tour, Ms. Skandar highlighted how Mr. Greeley retained nearly all of the Paxton Street building's original features to give it a vintage character. — [3] —. This makes it an ideal backdrop for all types of art.

The gallery's inaugural exhibit will showcase Ms. Skandar's work. — [4] —. The grand opening will occur on June 8 and 9 from 2:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. For more information, visit www.brentlerheightsgallery.org.

—Regina Nguyen, May 2

168. What topic is reported on in the blog post?

(A) The transformation of a city district
(B) The new publication released by a local architect
(C) An art class given at the Brentler Heights Gallery
(D) A grant given to Brentler Heights artists

169. What is indicated about Ms. Skandar?

(A) She teaches jewelry-making classes at a university.
(B) She was a supplier for Ms. Nguyen's business.
(C) She has lived in Brentler Heights for most of her life.
(D) She creates large metal sculptures for gardens.

170. What is true about the Brentler Heights Gallery?

(A) It opened five years ago in another location.
(B) It is located in an older, refurbished space.
(C) It occupies two floors of a building.
(D) It will be managed by Mr. Greeley.

171. In which of the positions marked [1], [2], [3], and [4] does the following sentence best belong?

"In the future, Ms. Skandar plans to feature collections from other local artists."

Questions 172-175 refer to the following online chat discussion.

Liz Yuen (8:58 A.M.)
Hi, all. Thank you for your prompt feedback on the Web site content I sent out in the group e-mail. Everyone agrees that the photos and the accompanying content do not seem to market the calendars strongly enough.

Helen Black (8:59 A.M.)
Right. But, to confirm that we're looking at the same material—there are several photos showing our desktop calendar each with the caption "The promise of a new year with a calendar from Stenmex Stationery."

Liz Yuen (9:01 A.M.)
That's correct. But the main problem is that the photos and the content that accompanies them need to be more engaging and interactive.

Jeff Spina (9:02 A.M.)
I agree. What if we ask customers to send us their written comments on how they use our calendars to help them organize their home offices? They could also send us a picture of their home office with our calendar in the image.

Helen Black (9:04 A.M.)
I'd be happy to share a photo of my own setup—from one of the days that I'm working from home. And I could write an explanation of how using the calendar helps me keep track of things. We could use that as an example for customers to follow.

Liz Yuen (9:05 A.M.)
Great idea. And what about the problems with the functionality of the Web site?

Jeff Spina (9:06 A.M.)
That would be great, Helen.

Helen Black (9:07 A.M.)
I saw those.

Jeff Spina (9:08 A.M.)
I'll speak with Ryeo Jee about that. Her team should be able to get the pop-up window and social media links working again soon.

Liz Yuen (9:09 A.M.)
Thanks, Jeff. Once the site is functional and we have our content finalized, her team can update the home page with what we have decided.

172. What are the chat participants discussing?

(A) Changes to a Web site
(B) Feedback from customers
(C) How to order new stationery
(D) What marketing firm to select

173. What is indicated about Ms. Black?

(A) She is a freelance photographer.
(B) She sometimes works from home.
(C) She designed a popular office calendar.
(D) She bought new office furniture recently.

174. At 9:07 A.M., what does Ms. Black imply when she writes, "I saw those"?

(A) She has selected some photographs.
(B) She accepted Ms. Yuen's meeting request.
(C) She received several e-mails from Mr. Spina.
(D) She knows that a Web site is not working correctly.

175. What does Ms. Yuen thank Mr. Spina for?

(A) Offering to contact a colleague
(B) Finalizing an employee contract
(C) Reviewing Ms. Jee's performance
(D) Taking photographs of a workspace

Its glass walls give guests an enchanted view of green gardens and bright flowers, while multiple windows in the ceiling make the sky part of the interior decoration.

Hillside House is the perfect setting for weddings and other social gatherings, as well as corporate events. The kitchen is under the direction of Chef Bashu Malik, a two-time Franklin Heard Foundation winner. Chef Malik oversees Hillside House's menus, whether the event hosts choose eclectic small plates, a family-style dinner, or a buffet brunch.

"Choosing the right venue is the key to success," says Hillside House Managing Director Russell Isley. "We offer everything—a beautiful setting, an experienced staff, and great food. Our events coordinator will work with you to make your wedding or corporate function an occasion to remember."

Dear Ms. Colling:

Thank you for reaching out to Hillside House about your upcoming product launch! Yes, 16 June is available; your Kitchen Designs corporate celebration is now on our schedule.

In preparation for the event, please note that we offer several unique branding opportunities. For example, we can display your company's logo in neon lights and hang up banners. Chef Malik and his staff can also work with you to include logos on food items or a cake. I am attaching information about the menu options and pricing. We have a state-of-the-art sound system and audiovisual equipment for speeches and presentations. If you would like entertainment for your event, I can also supply you with a list of bands and musicians.

Please let me know if you have any other questions. We at Hillside House look forward to hosting your event.

Sincerely,

Reka Taimona, Events Coordinator

From:	Bella Meyers <b.meyers@leadmail.com>
Date:	15 August
Subject:	Order 13783

Hello,

I recently ordered a pair of your Western boots in style Erin, size 40, in the chocolate colour. The boots arrived yesterday, but unfortunately, their actual colour is different from the colour pictured on your Web site. I had been hoping to wear the boots to a special event next month, but they are much darker than expected and do not match my planned outfit.

I would like to exchange the boots for another pair of the same style and size but in the terracotta colour. Please let me know how to proceed. I have purchased several pairs of boots from your company in the past and have always been pleased with their durability and comfort.

Date:	16 August
Subject:	RE: Order 13783

Dear Ms. Meyers,

Thank you for your e-mail. I am sorry you were disappointed with your order. We are happy to arrange an exchange as long as the boots you wish to return have not been worn.

At the moment, boots in the size, style, and colour you are requesting are out of stock. Because we are a small company, our inventory is not always fully available. Other than what you have purchased, we currently have the Erin boots of your size in the following colours: sand and forest. Since you are interested in a paler colour, I recommend sand. It is a warm shade and very versatile. Additionally, we have other styles available in your preferred colour, including Viola boots, our most popular style.

Please let me know if you would like to exchange your boots for any of the above options. If so, I can send you a postage-paid return label via e-mail for you to print at home.

Thank you for your business. If you have not signed up for our newsletter yet, I suggest you do. We offer discounts on discontinued styles.

Sincerely,

Brendan Stephens, Customer Service Representative
Takem Boot Company

181. What problem is explained in the first e-mail?

(A) An order was received later than expected.
(B) A product's color on a Web site is inaccurate.
(C) Some boots were not as comfortable as previous pairs were.
(D) An item was accidentally ordered in the wrong size.

182. What does Ms. Meyers indicate?

(A) She has been a frequent customer of Takem Boot Company.
(B) She still needs to buy an outfit for an event.
(C) She had difficulty navigating a Web site.
(D) She prefers dark-colored boots.

183. What color is currently NOT available for boots in the Erin style?

(A) Sand
(B) Forest
(C) Chocolate
(D) Terracotta

184. What does the second e-mail suggest about Takem Boot Company?

(A) It has stores in several locations.
(B) It charges a shipping fee for returns.
(C) It sells a lot of Viola boots.
(D) It is the most popular boot company in the region.

185. What does Mr. Stephens offer to do?

(A) Print a document
(B) E-mail a shipping label
(C) Send a product catalog
(D) Give a discount on new-style boots

From:	Greg Tanner <gtanner@halecitynews.com
Date:	July 1
Subject:	Community comments

Dear Ms. Marpone,

My last article about East Core Park attracted quite a few online comments. The comments were from residents complaining about overgrown weeds and fallen branches on the Blue Trail. They say the Red Trail is in good condition, but maintenance issues have persisted on the Blue Trail for quite some time.

As the newest member of the city council, you might not have heard many complaints yet. However, if you do get briefings regarding the situation, I would be grateful for any updates you can pass along. I reached out to parks commissioner Oscar Lunes for comments about this, but he hasn't responded. Someone mentioned he might be busy preparing for retirement.

Sincerely,

Greg Tanner

City Parks Department Launches Volunteer Initiative

By Greg Tanner

Hale City (July 12)—In response to residents' concerns about conditions on the hiking paths at East Core Park, the Hale City Parks Department offers an explanation and an outline of its plans for trail upkeep.

"Trail maintenance is transitioning from being performed by city employees to an all-volunteer model," said newly appointed parks commissioner Helen Yancey. "Before my predecessor stepped down after twenty years of service to the city, he began this shift. The result was a temporary suspension of maintenance on the Blue Trail."

Ms. Yancey added that the volunteer model will save money and allow residents greater involvement with the park system. Accordingly, the Hale City Parks Department has scheduled its first volunteer cleanup event, Trail Cleanup Day, on August 12, from 9:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M. Those interested in volunteering may register online at www.halecityparks.org/events.

Hale City Parks Department

August Announcements

The Hale City Parks Department's inaugural Trail Cleanup Day, held on August 8, was a great success. An enthusiastic group of volunteers cleared debris and weeds from the Blue Trail at East Core Park and had the path clean and usable just before noon on the bright, warm day.

Special thanks go to the following participants.

- Amy Harris, for coordinating volunteer efforts and bringing beverages
- Jason Skoda, resident of the adjacent East Heights neighborhood, for lending his power trimmer, pruning shears, and rakes to our crew of volunteers

We encourage residents to visit this page often to learn about upcoming volunteer events.

186. Why did Mr. Tanner write the e-mail?

(A) To inform his supervisor of an upcoming event
(B) To ask for information about trail maintenance
(C) To discuss enlarging a city park
(D) To congratulate a new city council member

187. What is suggested about Ms. Yancey?

(A) She is a replacement for Mr. Lunes.
(B) She lives near East Core Park.
(C) She trains new park volunteers.
(D) She is a fund-raising specialist.

188. What interrupted the maintenance of the Blue Trail?

(A) An expansion of the Red Trail
(B) A departmental policy change
(C) A large gathering held at a park
(D) An extended period of wet weather

189. What most likely is true about Trail Cleanup Day?

(A) Mr. Tanner initially planned it.
(B) The work took two days to complete.
(C) Volunteers attended a training session before the event.
(D) The date of the trail cleanup was changed.

190. According to the Web page, what did one nearby resident provide volunteers with?

(A) Breakfast foods
(B) Advice on hiking for health
(C) Landscaping tools
(D) Transportation to a park

To: All Staff
From: Miranda Noonan
Date: June 26
Subject: Art auction
Attachment: Donations

Dear Employees,

Ogunsanya and Bolden Law Firm is hosting our annual art auction, with all proceeds going to building a community garden. Many local artists plan to donate pieces for our auction, and as always, we encourage all amateur artists in our firm to donate work as well. Get out those paintbrushes and pencils and unleash your creativity. It is always a treat to see our colleagues' art hanging alongside pieces by professional artists!

This year's auction will be at Seven Gates Hotel and Restaurant on Friday, July 27, at 7:00 P.M. Our event will be held in the hotel restaurant, which has excellent lighting for our purposes.

I have attached a chart listing the professional art that has been donated so far. If you are interested in contributing this year, please e-mail me the details about your submission. Keep in mind that photographs, paintings, and drawings are the most popular mediums. However, one local artist donated a large sculpture, which will be the auction's centerpiece. Apart from that piece, we will only accept sculptures under 50 centimeters tall.

Best regards,

Miranda Noonan, Auction Chairperson

Hello, Ms. Noonan,

I am planning to contribute a piece of art again this year, but I've noticed its subject is very similar to that of another piece listed in your e-mail attachment. I've painted an orchard near my parents' house as it looks just when the sun is rising above it. Could I ask that my painting be placed away from the similar artwork?

Thanks,

Omonuwa Orou
